We love sharing the wonderful things happening at SSS! From classroom activities to special events and student achievements, we are proud to showcase the many ways our students learn, grow, and shine.

As a reminder, a completed permission slip is required before we can post any student photos or videos on our school social media pages. Student names are only shared when we have specific parent permission to do so.

Thank you for helping us celebrate our amazing SSS community while respecting the privacy and safety of our students. We look forward to continuing to share the great things happening at SSS!
